CITY OF AUBURN ANNOUNCES NEW INGERSOLL TURF FACILITY GENERAL MANAGER

AUBURN, ME. – Auburn’s City Manager has announced he has hired Jeremy Gatcomb of Lewiston, Maine to fill the role of Ingersoll Turf Facility General Manager. Mr. Gatcomb will begin his tenure on September 1, 2015.

Mr. Gatcomb received a degree in Sport Management from Daniel Webster College in 2006 and has over ten years of experience working in the field of recreation and sports. His range of experience includes coordinating college intramurals and specializing in recreation. He’s served as a Camp-Sport Director for Kennebec Valley YMCA as well as General Manager of the Portland Sports complex.

Mr. Gatcomb is an avid sports fan (New England teams of course) as well as a participant. He still plays baseball, softball and basketball in various, adult leagues.

Mr. Gatcomb has been the Recreation Program Leader for the City of Auburn’s Recreation Department for nearly six years where he’s proven himself to be an exceptional recreation organizer, manager and leader. He’ll continue to exercise his talents and skills in the fall of 2015 when the new turf facility is due to open.
